

A PARTNERSHIP OF THE CHAIR IN MENNONITE STUDIES AND THE D. F. PLETT HISTORICAL RESEARCH FOUNDATION, INC.

THE CENTRE FOR TRANSNATIONAL MENNONITE STUDIES

FOURTH ANNUAL LECTURE

MAY 30, 2019

7:00 PM

UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG

CLUB FOURTH FLOOR, WESLEY HALL

Dr. Colin P. Neufeldt

Professor of History

Concordia University of Edmonton

DURING THE FIRST YEARS OF BOLSHEVIK RULE, MENNONITES played leading roles in developing and administering Soviet institutions, voluntarily organizing and operating collective farms in their communities.

KGB ARCHIVES UPDATE

Dr. Aileen Friesen, co-director of CTMS, reports on her recent trip to Ukraine for the Paul Toews KGB Archives project.

Building a Soviet Utopia

Mennonites and the Collective Farm in Ukraine, 1920-1924

Working on the Collective. Peter Epp, Private Collection.

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG